THE 1906 ANNUAL GIVING SOCIETY

GIVING SOCIETIES

GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY
1906 Annual Giving Society Members are recognized for their generosity and annual support of Georgia Southern’s goal of becoming a national comprehensive research university. Our Annual Giving Society members help the University fulfill its mission of excellence in teaching, research and student success.
The 1906 Annual Giving Society is named for the year in which First District A&M school (now Georgia Southern University) was founded.

In 2012, the University changed the Society to recognize individuals who make an annual commitment in support of Georgia Southern.
Membership in The 1906 Annual Giving Society is extended to contributors who make annual gifts of $1,200 or more and have accumulated lifetime giving up to $24,999 through the Georgia Southern University Foundation, Inc. Couples’ gifts are combined to count as one household. Matching gifts, as well as gifts-in-kind, are counted in the cumulative giving totals. Contribution totals are calculated at the close of the fiscal accounting period July 1 through June 30 each year.

Qualifying gifts to the Georgia Southern University Foundation, Inc. include:

- Gifts of cash
- Matching gifts
- Tangible property (art, antiques, books, etc.)
- Intangible personal property (royalties, copyrights, etc.)
- Securities
- Gifts-in-kind of products/services

Note: When cumulative giving totals reach $25,000, members will automatically become new members of the Marvin S. Pittman Society, an elite giving society of Georgia Southern University, named to honor the innovative educator who served as President in the 1930s and 1940s.
