Legacy Society Members are recognized for their generosity and vision to help Georgia Southern continue funding student support, cutting-edge teaching, research and outreach projects.
Legacy Society members demonstrate an unwavering confidence in Georgia Southern University by choosing to make deferred gifts that will come to the University at a future date. Through a belief in education and a commitment to investing in the future, your gift will help ensure the strength and vitality of this growing institution for generations to come. Deferred or planned gifts offer a high degree of flexibility as well as numerous tax benefits.
Legacy Society Membership

The Legacy Society honors in perpetuity those who make a commitment to provide support through their estates by means of wills, bequests, or trusts. The Georgia Southern Foundation will certify individuals or couples who complete the required documentation of their deferred gifts.

Planned giving represents a significant gift to Georgia Southern and also provides creative and flexible strategies for your estate and charitable planning. Most importantly, your planned gift has a meaningful impact, supporting the work of the University that is important to you while educating the next generation of leaders. Your commitment may be directed toward any program, school or college.
